

I urge Chairman Powell to hold open hearings before changing the rules on FCC deregulation to ascertain how the public really feels about this important issue. Most of my friends are opposed and feel it would interfere with free interchange of information.